

EDITED BY ROBERT EDGREN

New York staged a fast fifteen-round fight here and the referee's verdict of a draw was a just one. Both boys fought like tigers throughout, but neither could secure a telling advantage. Sweeney opened a bad cut over his rival's eye in the tenth.

Tommy Bergin of Lewiston, Me., was unable to go into the ring for his fifteen-round bout with Gus Christie of Milwaukee, because of a cataract on one of his eyes. Tommy Madden of Brooklyn substituted and lasted a little over two rounds.

Wallace to Coach Wesleyan.
MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Oct. 9.—Coach Danny Hutchinson has engaged Edgar Wallace, captain of the 1931 University of Pennsylvania eleven and all-American tackle that fell to aid him with the Wesleyan team. Wallace will coach the line men in preparation for the game with Tufts on Saturday. Capt. Eustis has been shifted from fullback to quarterback, one of the weak points on the team. Dietjen, the speedy back, is in the game again. Halleck is showing up finely at end.
